THEFT OF SERVICES (Use of Stolen Credit or Debit Card) Penal Law § 165.15(1) (Committed on or after Nov. 1, 1995)

The (specify) count is Theft of Services.

Under our law, a person is guilty of Theft of Services when that person

[NOTE: Select appropriate alternative: obtains or attempts to obtain a service or induces or attempts to induce the supplier of a rendered service to agree to payment therefor on a credit basis] by the use of a credit card [or debit card] which he or she knows to be stolen.

The following terms used in that definition have a special meaning:

[OBTAIN includes, but is not limited to, the bringing about of a transfer, or purported transfer, of a service or of a legal interest therein, whether to the obtainer or another person.¹]

A person ATTEMPTS to obtain a service [or to induce the supplier of a rendered service to agree to payment therefor on a credit basis] by the use of a credit card [or debit card] which he or she knows to be stolen when he or she intends to do so and engages in conduct which tends to effect that objective.²

¹See, Penal Law § 155.00(2).

²See Penal Law § 110.00.

The term SERVICE includes (specify).³

[A CREDIT CARD includes any credit card, credit plate, charge plate, courtesy card or other identification card or device issued by a person to another person which may be used to obtain a cash advance or a loan or credit or to purchase or lease property or services on the credit of the issuer or of the holder.⁴]

[A DEBIT CARD includes a card, plate or other similar device issued by a person to another person which may be used, without a personal identification number or code (or similar identification), to purchase or lease property or services. The term does not include a credit card or a check, draft or similar instrument.⁵]

A person KNOWS that a credit card [or debit card] is stolen when that person is aware that such card is stolen.⁶

A credit card [or debit card] is STOLEN when it has been wrongfully taken, obtained, or withheld from an owner by a person who did so with the intent to deprive the owner of such card or to appropriate such card to himself or herself or a third person.⁷

An OWNER of a card means a person who has a right to ³Penal Law § 155.00(8) defines service as follows: "Service includes, but is not limited to, labor, professional service, a computer service, transportation service, the supplying of hotel accommodations, restaurant services, entertainment, the supplying of equipment for use, and the supplying of commodities of a public utility nature such as gas, electricity, steam and water."

possess it which is superior to that of the person who takes it.⁸

In order for you to find the defendant guilty of this crime, the People are required to prove, from all the evidence in the case, beyond a reasonable doubt, both of the following two elements:

1. That on or about (date), in the county of (county), the defendant, (defendant's name),

[Select appropriate alternative: obtained or attempted to obtain a service or induced or attempted to induce the supplier of a rendered service to agree to payment for such service on a credit basis]

by the use of a stolen credit card [or debit card]; and

2. That the defendant knew that such card was stolen.

If you find the People have proven beyond a reasonable doubt both of those elements, you must find the defendant guilty of this crime.

If you find the People have not proven beyond a reasonable doubt either one or both of those elements, you must find the defendant not guilty of this crime.

⁸See Penal Law § 155.00(5). Also see that section for special definitions of "owner" to cover the situations (1) where the alleged owner obtained the property by theft, (2) where the alleged owner is a joint or common owner of the property, and (3) where the property is in the possession of the alleged owner but some other person has a security interest in the property.
